

ACT I

SCENE 1

Mr. Clocktime carries around a black cane. Traveling in a hypercube, he observes different points in Earth history, present, and future.

MR. CLOCKTIME

In this world I call my home, where time is lengthier than any tome,
come with me to see another world.

(Mr. Clocktime taps his black cane. Then twirls his black top hat, hopping into the apocalyptic future.)

SCENE 2

Mr. Clocktime arrives in a dried out landscape. He taps his black cane, and slowly a tree returns to life.

In the distance is a ruined city that was once Chattanooga.

MR. CLOCKTIME

You might wonder what I see in Hemato, Nadine, and Dantino. But believe me, all with me revealed from me in do time.

(And with a tap of his cane, pops back into the hypercube.)

But Nadine I have more hope in. She has the blessing of time.

SCENE 3

Mr. Clocktime desires for himself a daughter to replace him. For this he places his bets on Nadine.

Hemato is to far gone.
